

FACTSWHAT DOES FIRST NATIONAL BANK OF STANTON DO WITH YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION?

Why?	Financial companies choose how they share your personal information. Federal law gives consumers the right to limit some but not all sharing. Federal law also requires us to tell you how we collect, share, and protect your personal information. Please read this notice carefully to understand what we do.
What?	The types of personal information we collect and share depend on the product or service you have with us. This information can include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Social Security number and transaction history ▪ account balances and payment history ▪ credit history and checking account information When you are no longer our customer, we continue to share your information as described in this notice.
How?	All financial companies need to share customers' personal information to run their everyday business. In the section below, we list the reasons financial companies can share their customers' personal information; the reasons First National Bank of Stanton chooses to share; and whether you can limit this sharing.

Reasons we can share your personal information	Does First National Bank of Stanton share?	Can you limit this sharing?
For our everyday business purposes – Such as to process your transactions, maintain your account(s), respond to court orders and legal investigations, or report to credit bureaus	Yes	No
For our marketing purposes – to offer our products and services to you	No	We do not share
For joint marketing with other financial companies	No	We do not share
For our affiliates' everyday business purposes – information about your transactions and experiences	No	We do not share
For our affiliates' everyday business purposes – information about your creditworthiness	No	We do not share
For non-affiliates to market to you	No	We do not share

Questions?

Call 1-432-756-3361

Who we areWho is providing this notice?

First National Bank of Stanton – 119 N. St. Peter, Stanton, Texas 79782

What we doHow does First National Bank of Stanton protect my personal information?

To protect your personal information from unauthorized access and use, we use security measures that comply with federal law. These measures include computer safeguards and secured files and buildings.

We limit employee access to confidential customer financial information to those employees with a business reason for knowing such information.

How does First National Bank of Stanton collect my personal information?

We collect your personal information, for example, when you

- open an account or apply for a loan
- pay your bills or make a wire transfer
- give us your income information

We also collect your personal information from others, such as credit bureaus, affiliates, or other companies.

Why can't I limit all sharing?

Federal law gives you the right to limit only

- sharing for affiliates' everyday business purposes – information about your creditworthiness
- affiliates from using your information to market to you
- sharing for non-affiliates to market to you

State laws and individual companies may give you additional rights to limit sharing.

DefinitionsAffiliates

Companies related by common ownership or control. They can be financial and nonfinancial companies.

- First National Bank of Stanton has no affiliates.

Non-affiliates

Companies not related by common ownership or control. They can be financial and nonfinancial companies.

- First National Bank of Stanton does not share with non-affiliates so they can market to you

Joint Marketing

A formal agreement between nonaffiliated financial companies that together market financial products or services to you.

- First National Bank of Stanton does not jointly market

Other important information